SERMON STUDY GUIDE

Read:

Acts 27:1-28:2

Reflect:

- Paul, a prisoner in transport during this story, stands up several times to speak a word of faith and courage. Who has stepped forward in your story to speak words of faith and courage during uncertain times?
- After the ship goes down everyone on board reaches an unknown island. They do not know what dangers might await them but are surprised by the extraordinary kindness of the local people. When has the kindness of strangers helped you to have courage in the wilderness?

Respond:

Just before dawn breaks, Paul urges everyone to eat. He also celebrates communion. Next time you receive communion, imagine what it would be like to have the Lord's Supper on board a ship that is destined to sink.
