As I prepare to leave this place our family will forever call home, I am overwhelmed with gratitude at what God has empowered us to do together at MDUMC.

Never did I expect that I'd spend my first decade as a pastor among your ranks, but God did! Never did I think that during that time Jean and I would welcome all three of our children into this family of faith, but God did! Never did I image how your faithfulness would unlock the future possibilities for the ministry of The Journey Worship Community, but God did! Never could I have estimated just how deeply I would come to love you and how bittersweet this parting would be, but God did.

Thank you for the ways in which you have prayed for us, cared for us, supported us and cheered us on. You will be forever in our hearts.

With love,
